SCENE 1.—Discussion of Fairies respecting subject for Christmas Spectacle. Little Red Riding Hood selected as the Heroine. Entrance of Little Red Riding Hood, who will sing a New Song, composed by Mr. F. STANISLAUS, entitled "Pretty Little Flowers."

SCENE 2.—The naughty Wolf attempts to devour Little Red Riding Hood, but being under fairy power she escapes from his clutches.

SCENE 3.—"The Chase." Prince Goldenlocks and his hunting party. In this scene a Stag Hunt will take place. The hounds in full cry. Ponies and riders in pursuit. Introduction of a "Chorus of Huntsmen," composed by Mr. F. STANISLAUS.

SCENE 4.—Granny's Cottage. The naughty wolf waits impatiently for Little Red Riding Hood. Timely arrival of Prince Goldenlocks. Terrific combat between the Prince and Wolf. Discomfiture of the latter, who is banished by the Fairy Queen to growl the rest of his existence away at the Zoological Gardens. General invitation to

THE FAIRIES' GARDEN PARTY,

SCENE 5.—Introduces the Gardeners, who sing "Beautiful Flowers," by M. RIVIERE, (composer of the celebrated "Spring Chorus.") "Beautiful Flowers" and the "Chorus of Huntsmen" will be sung by the ORIGINAL CHOIR OF BOYS who appeared in "Babil and Bijou" at the Theatre Royal Covent Garden. Entrance of Little Boo-Peep, whose sheep really have their tails behind them. Little Red Riding Hood's reception of the Heroes and Heroines of Nursery Legends, including—Jack and Jill, Jack Horner, Dame Trot and her wonderful cat, Tom Thumb, Jack Sprat, and the delightful Little Miss Muffet.

Little Red Riding Hood is entranced with her visitors, but expresses herself more so when she receives calls from such distinguished Potentates and Heroes as Marshal Mac Mahon, the Irrepressible Shah, the Emperor of Germany and his attendant Cuirassiers, Count Bismark, Napoleon I., attended by his faithful Mameluke, John Bull, who is always prepared for the good things at Christmas time, General Garibaldi, America, Hibernia, Scotia &c., &c.

Little Miss Muffet, (Miss GILCRIST) to show her gratitude to Red Riding Hood for the introduction to such noble and illustrious personages, kindly proffers to entertain the guests with her Inimitable Skipping - Rope Dance.

After which, Miss WOOLRIDGE will dance THE HUNGARIAN POLKA.

All the guests join in THE SIR ROGER DE COVERLEY DANCE.

Trumpets are sounded, and Britannia on her Magnificent Car, attended by her Fairies, comes to shed a lustre and add a finishing grace to this

Unity of Nations and Delightful Garden Party.
